Wishing Thread

The Eternity Crystals Story

Eternity Crystals are believed to be formed from the frozen breath of Aeternitas. Pieces that plummeted to the earth, were embedded into mountains, later to be discovered near the end of the Roman Empire. When they were found, it was thought to be an omen of good fortune.

Given to skilled artisans, who carved them into shapes, they were cut with many facets to reflect and amplify the energy around them. It was said they would carry your wishes through the night sky; bringing much health, happiness and prosperity to its owner.

Over the years the legend of the Eternity Crystals has travelled near and far. Some had started to add smaller crystals, to help lighten the burden of each Eternity Crystal. Each small crystal represents a facet in one's life. With each crystal your wishes are heard, and carried into the sky. Make your wishes with this Wishing Thread into the moonlight.
